Accumulated Manufacturing KNOW-HOWs

Based on the experience of operating total 70 tteokbokki stores, we gain lots of know-hows of Korean traditional street food manufacturing methods. As we are now working at food area for over 25 years, we can surely make great quality of foods in reasonable price. Now the Korean food culture is booming up, we are targeting overseas customer to try our products and enjoy the tastefulness. We can manufacture Korean food product with our 25 years know how. Basically we did catering service for the hypermarket's food courts. We operated 48 stores of that. And then we launched our own franchise “Red Racoon”, and operated over 30 stores. In the experience of that, we gain lots of know hows of tasty recipes, and get to know the customer's needs. In last, we launched our own brand to meet customers directly, and now exporting to over 10 countries in the world.
