

Comprehensive workforce solutions

RWM brings your business tailored blue and white collar workforce solutions in one place so you can save time and money with a productive, reliable and engaged workforce.

Managed workforce

Scale up confidently with local and PALM workers – flexible, reliable and ready to meet your operational or seasonal demands.

Permanent recruitment

Find an exceptional fit – someone who shares your values, commitment and drive for long term success and growth.

International (non-PALM)

Access skilled international workers and backpackers when locals aren't available, building a reliable, hardworking team beyond borders.

The PALM scheme

Regional Workforce Management (RWM) is proud to be the largest provider under the Pacific Australia Labour Mobility (PALM) scheme where your business may recruit workers for up to four years.

RWM can deliver a fully compliant, end to end workforce solution that removes complexity for your business, with in country welfare support that improves integration, communication and workforce stability.
